THACKERAYANA:
NOTES AND ANECDOTES.

Illustrated by a profusion of Sketches in Facsimile from the Originals by WILLIAM MAKEPEACE THACKERAY, and Five Coloured Plates.

"An exceedingly curious and valuable volume, the diverting pages of which are adorned by some six hundred engraved facsimiles of the little caricature sketches which the illustrious author of 'Vanity Fair' was perpetually scribbling in the margins of books, and on every scrap of paper which came in his way, and which these eyes have witnessed him scribbling scores of times."—GEORGE AUGUSTUS SALA.

"Any one who would know the extraordinary fertility of Thackeray's genius in the way of comic pictorial art should look over the volume entitled 'Thackerayana.' Some of the sketches in this volume are so excellent as to create some wonder why Thackeray was not still more successful in the same walk. Thackeray saw a great deal of the world, and he seized the salient points of nationality with infinite drollery and truth. Many of the sketches remind us of the strange pictorial puns with which Thomas Hood used to amuse the town in days when Thackeray was still quite young. But the author of 'Vanity Fair' had a more artistic sense than the admirable poet and humourist to whom we have alluded. As a draughtsman, he had more skill, more varied power, more grace, and a wider knowledge of character."—Daily News.

"The book is light and yet substantial. It has that Thackerayan twang about it which is eminently satisfying to the mind, and at the same time thoroughly amusing. The book is made up of sketches by Thackeray, drawn at various times. It would be difficult to imagine anything more humorous than these; they seem to cast a new light upon old works, and to bring out more strongly that which is humorous in them. Most of these little sketches are intensely funny. Good service has been done by the publication of this volume. It seems to reveal even greater possibilities in Thackeray's character than most of his previously published works have done."—Spectator.

"The world would lose sight altogether of one important side of Thackeray's many-sided genius if it failed to study him as a draughtsman no less than as an essayist and novelist. And here in 'Thackerayana' is the very material from which to form the truest estimate of his powers. Thackeray, according to the rules of art, was but an indifferent sketcher. But in his own way, and as the illustrator of his own swift thoughts by a few pencil strokes hardly less swift, Thackeray was with a dozen better draughtsmen—and it is some of this work of his we get here; little marginal comments on his own or others' writings—each the embodiment in grotesque outline of some sly bit of criticism and humour. The letterpress, too—the running comments on Thackeray's life-history, the extracts that give birth to the illustrations, often as racy as the sketches themselves—is very cleverly put together."—Graphic.

Crown 8vo, cloth, full gilt, with Photographic Frontispiece, 10s. 6d.

THE BRIC-A-BRAC HUNTER; Or, CHAPTERS ON CHINAMANIA.

EPPS'S COCOA.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavoured beverage which may save us many heavy doctor's bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—See article in the Civil Service Gazette.

MOODY AND SANKEY.

AMERICAN ORGANS in every variety of CRAMER'S Manufacture and on CRAMER'S Three Years System.

Prices from 15 Guineas, or £1 11s. 6d. a Quarter.

CRAMER and Co. by no means wish it to be understood, as in some quarters it would seem to have been, that their AMERICAN ORGANS are used by Messrs. Moody and Sankey at their interesting meetings.

CRAMER'S instruments are much more solid in manufacture, and infinitely superior in quality of tone, and are certainly not open to the objection made by perhaps the most influential literary and musical journal to the imported organs:—

"Judged from the artistic point of view, the instrument is no more agreeable to the ear than is the stentorian power displayed by the singer."

Moreover, while CRAMER'S AMERICAN ORGANS are more satisfactorily made, and better finished in all respects, they are sold at prices varying from 15 to 25 per cent. below those of all imported instruments.

These, and all other instruments of CRAMER'S manufacture, can be had on the three years system, which, originated by CRAMER'S, has been partially adopted by other firms, but is carried out on a thoroughly large and liberal scale only by themselves.

Carefully Revised and Edited by Lieutenant-Colonel C. BUCKLE, and containing 316 Illustrations and 6 Maps, price 3*l.* 3*s.* [Now ready.]

From Times, October 7, 1875.—“Nothing can be clearer than M. Rousselet's description of the countries and people he visited during these five years, and we seem ourselves to be living among them, as they pass in his vivid pages in stately splendour under our eyes. The book is superbly illustrated also, and with remarkable accuracy, for every face in it is a likeness which any Anglo-Indian will at once recognise. . . . We might quote many striking extracts from M. Rousselet's work for the entertainment of our readers, but we have said enough to justify us in recommending it warmly to their notice. In the magnificent collection of books which the Prince of Wales has selected for presents to the princes, chiefs, and other distinguished natives of India, are 50 copies of this work. His Royal Highness's tour will closely follow M. Rousselet's route, and, no doubt, will be followed in his volume by many in anticipation and often again in illustration of the Royal progress.”

Gruner's Italian Fresco Paintings: Fresco Decorations and Stuccoes of Churches and Palaces in Italy during the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Centuries, a splendid volume, imp. folio. Frontispiece, and 45 very large, elaborate, and most interesting Engravings, after the Original Paintings of Raphael, Giulio Romano, Giovanni da Udine, Baldassare Peruzzi, Sebastiano del Piombo, Correggio, Moretto, Ambrogio da Fano, Bramantino, Bernardino, Luzzi, Pinturicchio, &c., several elaborately finished in Colour, and coloured key-plates are given to show the colouring of the rest; with a 4to volume of TEXT; an Essay by J. J. Hittorf, on the Arabesque of the Ancients, as well as those of the Raphael and his School—altogether 2 vols. cloth, half-bound red morocco, gilt edges, 7s. 7s. 1851.

This magnificent work—long out of print—is no less valuable to the Architect than to the Painter. It exhibits the most beautiful and varied Revue, in an elaborate attempt to exhibit fresco decorative painting in that highest walk chosen by Michael Angelo and Raffaele (except as a handmaid), but as a purely decorative Art and subservient to Architecture. Owing to its very existence to the exigencies of the sovereign art, and deriving its appropriate locality, scale and effect, from the edifice, it no less assists the Architecture, in return, by its arabesques and other tasteful accessories.

Gruner's Terra-Cotta Architecture of North Italy (Twelfth to Fifteenth Centuries). A series of select examples for imitation in other countries, from careful drawings and restorations, by FEDERIGO LOSE; with descriptive letter-press. Edited by LEWIS GRUNER. 1 vol. folio, with 18 chromo-lithographic plates, with elevations, sections, mouldings, and working drawings in line. Half-bound, morocco, 5s. 2s. 1865.

Only a limited edition was printed, and few copies remain for sale. The drawings here reproduced in colour are the result of the long labours and studies of Signor Loe, whose taste and long practice of the eye has recovered, in many cases from buildings reduced to ruin by war, wanton dilapidation, dirt and neglect, rather than from effects of the weather—ornaments obliterated from the view of an ordinary observer. To certain extent, he has been able to restore, by patiently retracing, with his practised eye, every tint, every shade of colour, every scratch, he has succeeded in rescuing and presenting to us the Italian architect's original plans and designs restored to a freshness which they never first had.

Now completed, 5 parts in 1 vol. folio, half morocco, 7s. 7s.

From a Speech by DEAN STANLEY.

"He was there also to express the obligations of dear old friends of 200 years ago—Chillingworth, Jeremy Taylor, Sir Matthew Hale, Cud-worth, and others. All these were now dear friends, who but for Dr.
Stoughton would never have been known to them. He had also to express his obligations to Dr. Stoughton for making him acquainted here with men whom he should know so well above—he meant Howe, Owen, and others. They had, before Dr. Stoughton's time, histories of the Puritans in which they read of nothing but Puritanism; histories of the Church of England in which was nothing but the glories of the Church of England. The work of Dr. Stoughton was the first work which had brought together men famous in their different classes, within the four corners of the same book. He only trusted that, when the twenty-first century should come, future historians of the reign of Queen Victoria would treat of men of our time with the same candour and fairness."

The PHILOSOPHY of NATURAL THEOLOGY. By the Rev. WILLIAM JACKSON, M.A.,

"Positivism," "Right and Wrong," "The Golden Spell," &c.

Principal Contents:—Philosophy of Design; Conditions of Human Knowledge; Beliefs of Reason; Production and its Law; Causation; Responsibility.

"It is certainly a very thoughtful and very remarkable book—remarkable for various reasons. In the first place, the author must be congratulated on his exceeding great candour towards all writers of the least eminence who happen to entertain opinions at variance with his own convictions. In this respect he is entitled to all the commendation which a reviewer can bestow without seeming to indulge in extravagant compliment. A second striking characteristic of this essay is the witness it bears to the extent and thoroughness of Mr. Jackson's scholarship. We had noticed the same evidence as furnished in our author's admirable sermon on 'Right and Wrong,' which was preached before his own University of Oxford. In that sermon, as in the present treatise, it is quite refreshing to meet with a writer to whom the entire historical realm of speculative thought is as a familiar home.
The present writer would stake here his critical reputation, whatever that may be worth, on the assertion that few in our day have done better service than Mr. Jackson, by furnishing as he does so many independent, but, in the end, consistent lines of argument which inevitably lead up to the conclusion that the laws of nature and the conscience of man, who is yet a part of nature, must have had a rational and moral origin." —Spectator.

"The readers of this fairy tale will find themselves dwelling for a time in a veritable region of romance, breathing an atmosphere of unreality, and surrounded by supernatural beings."—Morning Post."This delightful work..... We would gladly have read it were it twice the length, closing the book with a feeling of regret that the repeat was at an end."—Vanity Fair."A beautiful conception of a rarely gifted mind."—Examiner.

HER TITLE of HONOUR. By HOLME LEE. A New Edition. 1 vol., with 4 Illustrations, 5s.

"It is unnecessary to recommend tales of Holme Lee's; but this book far exceeds our favourites—because with the interest of a pathetic story is united the value of a definite and high purpose, and because also it is a careful and beautiful piece of writing, and is full of studies of refined and charming character."—Spectator.

"To a large class of readers of all ages and opinions, from children who love to revel—especially towards bedtime—in the enchanting awe of a 'real ghost story,' to graver inquirers who take a philosophical, however sceptical, interest in the history of the 'supernatural' as a phase of human belief, the title-page of these elegantly printed volumes will promise an abundant feast..... It is only fair to add that those who are attracted by the first appearance of the book will have no reason to be disappointed on making closer acquaintance with its contents, which amply fulfil the promise of the title."—Saturday Review.

HOW TO SELECT AN OFFICE for LIFE ASSURANCE.

Extract from Board of Trade's Report, July 2, 1874.

"Taking Insurance business as it exists in this country, the Public cannot be misled if, when seeking an Office in which to effect an Insurance, they select one which transacts its business at a small percentage of working cost, and does not anticipate its profits."

THESE TESTS ARE ENTIRELY FULFILLED BY THE ROYAL INSURANCE COMPANY,

the Report itself showing that of all the English Provincial Offices and all the Scotch Offices, the Royal's Ratio of Expenses to its Premium Income is the Lowest, and the Company have never anticipated a Single Shilling of Profit.

Extract from "The Times" of July 24, 1874.

"On the whole, it would be safe for the Father of a Family, contemplating the Insurance of his Life, to select one of the Offices with a Large Life Fund, a Small Expenditure on Management, and a Rate of Interest ranging from 4·2 to 4·5 per cent."

"THE ROYAL"

ENTIRELY MEETS THE WHOLE OF THESE REQUIREMENTS.

Its Life Fund is close upon Two Millions Sterling; its Expenses are Lower than those of any other English Provincial Office, and of any Scotch Office; and its rate of Interest is 4·4 per cent.

LIFE FUNDS	£1,761,523
GENERAL RESERVE	£594,434
PAID-UP CAPITAL	£289,545

"We have examined and counted every Security, and have found all correct and in perfect order, and that the present aggregate market value is in excess of the amounts in the Balance-sheet."—From Auditors' Report, July 17, 1874.

"As evidence of the care exercised in the Investment of the Life Funds, it may be mentioned that they have never been reduced a single penny by bad or doubtful securities."—From Chairman's Speech at Annual Meeting, August 7, 1874.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

W. M. THACKERAY'S DRAWINGS.

PREPARING FOR PUBLICATION,

THE ORPHAN OF PIMLICO,

AND OTHER SKETCHES, FRAGMENTS, AND DRAWINGS,

By WILLIAM MAKEPEACE THACKERAY.

A book was published not long ago under the title of "Thackerayana," containing a number of Illustrations professedly taken from Mr. Thackeray's drawings. They are, for the most part, mere schoolboy scraps and fancies—some may possibly have been attributed erroneously to his hand; and all are reproduced by a process which necessarily makes the Engravings very inadequate renderings of the original work.

Mr. Thackeray's sketches lost in engraving and in drawing upon wood, and his representatives—who were entirely unconcerned in the publication of the book called after his name—think it right to state their extreme unwillingness that it should be regarded as in any sense authorized by them, or admitted by them as an adequate representation of his artistic feeling. To justify this protest they have collected a few drawings, which have this undoubted merit, that they are certainly his, and which will be copied by a process that will give a faithful reproduction of the originals.

The designs contained in the volume tell their own story. Some of the drawings are hasty sketches, and were made in travelling note-books; others were afterwards used for purposes of illustration; some are pictures that were drawn for the amusement of children, others for that of his friends. They might be multiplied indefinitely, but it is thought that the specimens here given are enough to show the habitual manner of his work.
